

Thomas L. Saidy

Thomas L. Saidy is Senior Vice President of Cartica Capital LLC. Prior to joining Cartica, Mr.

Saidy served as the CIO of Milestone Merchant Partners' two India-focused private equity funds: India Direct Fund, L.P. and eTEC Ventures, L.P. Mr. Saidy also served as a Vice President of Richard C. Breeden & Co. where he was engaged in various corporate governance matters including WorldCom, Adelphia, Enron, KPMG, and Fannie Mae. From 2003-2005, Mr. Saidy was a Managing Director with Demerara Ventures, LLC, an international strategic advisory firm focused on capital raising and business development for companies in the US and overseas. From 2001-2003, Mr. Saidy served as an institutional equity Advisor with Castleton Holdings, a US-focused real estate institutional equity investment company. Prior to joining Castleton, Mr. Saidy was Director of Strategy and Operations for Softbank Emerging Markets, Inc., a $200 million global venture fund sponsored by IFC and Softbank (Japan). Mr. Saidy spent nine years of his career as a senior investment manager with International Equity Partners, LP, a private equity and advisory services firm operating in, India, SE Asia and Eastern Europe. During this time, he also served as CEO of the Danube Restructuring Fund, a $200 million debt-restructuring fund. Mr. Saidy received his Bachelor of Arts from Connecticut College and his MBA from Duke University's Fuqua School of Business.

CARTICA CAPITAL LLC